

“Every nature of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of the rest, is tamed, and hath been tamed, by the nature of man.

Taming The Tongue

But the tongue no man can tame, an unquiet evil, full of deadly poison. By it we bless God and by it we curse men. Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing.” (James 3:2-10)

