

THE SURFER'S WOE!

At the computer he does sit
For hours on end and then a bit!
He surfs the blogs and sites for news
Of what's to come, then trembles in his shoes!

“The end is nigh!” we hear him cry
“It's time to kiss the world goodbye!”
A Third World War is drawing near!
Is what to all he makes very clear!

Listen please to what I say:
A chastisement is on the way!
Terrible things are foretold;
That we'll very soon behold.
As Our Lady did admonish,
That the world God will punish

Yet most folk simply plug their ears,
And shut their eyes to avoid the fears.
Of such things they don't like to speak.
With pinch of salt they take news bleak!

They spend hours on many a website
With vigils late into the night
Yet on their knees they are rarely found
That's why things can't be turned around!

To drive dismal thoughts away,
People seek to laugh and play.
Heaven's remedy they refuse;
The Rosary they will not use.
Penance they will not do,
As entertainment they pursue.
All this will sadly end,
If their lives they do not mend.

GOD
MUST COME
FIRST
IF YOU DON'T WANT TO BE CURSED!

“They are cursed who decline from Thy commandments”
Psalm 118:21
